Apologetics & World Views

Apologetics is the study of how to give reasons for our Christian hope (1 Peter 3:15) and a defense of the Faith. This course seeks to articulate the rational basis for Christianity. In particular, this course will emphasize how students should go about responding to objections and critiques to the Christian faith.

Life of Christ - Harmony of the Gospels

The Gospels-- Matthew, Mark, Luke and John -- are about the coming of the promised Messiah. Just like our two eyes give us a three-dimensional stereoscopic picture, so by viewing the four Gospels synchronously and chronologically, we can discover new insights into all the events we read about in vivid color.

3 CREDITS

New Testament Survey

This course is an introduction to the authorship and contents of the New Testament books. Special attention is given to important persons, places and events as well to key chapters in the New Testament revelation.
